

Photography Expert Interviews

Participant number

Your answer

Do you have any typical photography processes (a set number of steps)? Does it change depending on the types of photos you are taking?

Your answer

Can you walk me through these process(es)?

Your answer

What tools do you use for photography?

Your answer

What guidance does it provide? And what, if any, of that guidance do you use? (such as the light meter, focus dots, etc.)

Your answer

Would some form of composition guidance be helpful for you? How would you imagine your camera giving such guidance and how would you use it?

Your answer

Can you imagine composition guidance that highlights alignments with composition grids aiding you in the camera while taking photos (or curating, editing, etc)? (think snapping/alignment in programs like Illustrator)

Your answer

Do you teach others about photography?

Your answer

If yes, how do you generally go about teaching?

Your answer

What are some important topics that amateurs tend to struggle with? (or that you struggled with when you were getting started)

Your answer

Can you imagine such composition guidance helping you teach or helping the people you teach/amateurs?

Your answer

SUBMIT

Never submit passwords through Google Forms.

This form was created inside of Stanford University. Report Abuse - Terms of Service

Google Forms

